July 2018

Although most of the public knows our name, our latest research tells us that too many prospective members or supporters do not fully understand Rotary. They don't know what we stand for and what we do in local communities. And nearly 60 percent of those surveyed said they were unaware that a Rotary club exists in their own community.

The People of Action campaign helps you bring Rotary's story to life by showing Rotary members as the people of action we are. Telling our People of Action stories in a meaningful, coordinated way builds the public's understanding of who we are and what we do. It highlights the impact we make in our communities and around the world. Learn how to tell your People of Action story and help answer the question, “What is Rotary?”

What makes Rotarians in the Bahamas People of Action?

Discover how the Rotary Club of East Nassau, Nassau, Bahamas, (the club of new Rotary International President, Barry Rassin) is working with others in their community to preserve the environment and New Providence, the island they call home.
