Last Meeting	15/10/18	No 2436
Present	17 Rotarians
Guests	Ava Koentzen, Chris & Eleanor Oyston (RC Jerrabomberra NSW)

- Child Protection almost under control. P Lisman heard that DCSI checks will be free for volunteers if proposed legislation is passed in November.
- Request from District 9500 to provide staffing for some duties at a possible refuge centre in case of catastrophic bushfire. Ian will reply that we already commit to assist locally.
- Ava will spend November in Koolunga, and October and December in Clare. School finishes on the 19th December. She will not be sitting exams.
- Club received a gift basket from Clare Primary School in appreciation of our support. Basket to be raffled at another occasion.
- Pres Josie thanked I Howlett for arranging the next article for the Plains Producer.
- Christmas Float – will use the flags again, but with large photos of Rotary International activities added.
- Re past members' get-together in 2019. She will talk to Jim. J Pulford will assist with invitations. To be held at RC.
- Interact – Sharyn and Josie to look after it in 2019. Looking for teachers willing to support it. Each meeting needs a Rotarian with a current DCSI .
- Probus Club Balaklava invited us to 18th birthday celebrations on Wed 24th October.. Josie will attend.
- Open day at Grevillia House Friday 26th October. Julianne will accompany Josie.
- First daylight saving paper drive Mon 29th October.
- Rotary Spot – Peter Lisman told us of his recent visit to the Canberra Floriade, where the local RC sells garden gnomes for $20, for people to paint on the spot, and take them home. They also sell knitted poppies.
- Exchange student Ava told us of her trip to Strathalbyn Show, where the duck race was sponsored by the Strath RC. Punters paint plastic ducks, and the first one across the creek is the winner.
- Hermann told us of Darwin Sunrise's strategic plan – avenues of service, key areas of focus, aims of the club. Club projects and activities are discussed regularly at club level. He suggested that Pres Josie consider some items to apply to our club.
- Margaret Kimber and Greg Honeychurch spoke of their wish to have more social interaction between members.
- Barrie Smith is working with Dr Phil Gribble to raise a container of equipment for Cambodia.
- RYDA 2019 proposed for 11th and 12th June.
- David Dunstan asked for someone to pick up large amount of newspaper from Plains Producer. B Smith will do.
- Bill Singleton suggested that we have more visibility in the community, by attending more local events in the name of publicity.
