Chairperson Bill opened the meeting at approximately 6 49
 Apologies: Ian, Andrew, Leon, Arlene
 Toast: Trish

President David is handed the meeting at ~ 6 51

President David's notes

Kapunda street party - Saturday evening. There will be a parade. Copper Road will return. What would we like to do?

PBF - targeting spinal cord injuries. $25 per member for the club to insure members against spinal cord injuries.

Secretary (Deane)

Craniofacial newsletter

Attendance report - 8 members, 1 partner, 1 Friend of Rotary, 1 guest.

Spots -

Brenton - stayed at Goolwa and at the supermarket you could put an advertisement on a board for $6 a week. A Rotary logo was on the board. Might we be able to do the same?

Deane - Ag town of the year - SA life will do a profile of each town. Kapunda is next week. We may be able to promote the Rotary art show on there at a price.

Doug - a grant application is available to renovate and refit the Rotary bbq trailer. Dollar for dollar grant. We could argue it's needed on occupational health and safety grounds.

Spoke to Leon regarding a conferencing situation for meetings but he's not keen.

175th birthday celebrating the opening of the mine. Melodienacht model or potentially North and Clare Hotels could cater. Bands and byo/catered food. A bar could be available. Rotary gave support in principle providing a business case is provided. Support is conditional on making some money for Rotary and the numbers stacking up.

Signage around Map the Miner dates back to 1994. Could we update that?

Frank - Art Show meeting postponed. 1st Thursday in October is the next meeting. Food will need to be organised.

David - RYDA - needs volunteers for Wednesday 25th September.

Deane, Don, Sondra, Frank, Bill and Ian.

Whyalla conference, a number have registered. This will be the last district 9500 conference.

Xmas party - Rotary will provide a bbq.

Jenny - asked about the Kapunda helipad. Bill to investigate.

Bill - Federal government through Council to donate $240,000 to Senior citizens clubrooms. Would Rotary be able to donate a flagpole? Will consider this after the art show. Rotary logo to be on the flagpole.

Orana may be able to utilise the lifestyle village in Kapunda. Meetings are upcoming.

Lucky envelope - Doug.

President David welcomed Elijah Smith who spoke enthusiastically about his attendance at the UN Youth national conference.

It brought together over 100 young people from Australia and the neighbouring region. The age of information was the topic under consideration. Interesting keynote speakers and plenty of sharing of stories.

Lots of fun but some more serious benefits included -

Knowledge - sharing of ideas between participants.

Friendship - 109 young people meeting together and forming connections.

Self - learning to speak more positively and fluently in public. Helping young people develop their passion and voice. Life changing experience for many young people.

Elijah thanked Kapunda Rotary for assisting with funding to enable his attendance at the conference.

President David closed the meeting at ~ 8 50
