Australian Mental Health Researchers Need YOUR Help During COVID-19

Australian Rotary Health Bruce Edwards Postdoctoral Fellowship recipient
Dr Louise Birrell is asking for your support.

Experts warn that suicide rates could rise by up to 50% in the wake of the catastrophic and prolonged economic impacts of COVID-19. Our mental health is also taking a hit.

Now, more than ever, we need mental health research to effectively deal with the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic. But we can't do it alone.

We urge you to consider donating to mental health research today to help Australian Rotary Health #LiftheIdonmentalillness in these uncertain times and ultimately improve the health and wellbeing of all Australians going forward.

We have set a target to raise $200,000 and have raised $5,780 so far. Any contribution towards our COVID-19 appeal will be greatly appreciated.

Please share this link with your family, friends and social networks.

Thank you for your support!
