

During the COVID-19 crisis, continuing research into mental health is more important than ever.

Help Us Reach Our Mental Health Research Fundraising Target By June 30!

Australian Rotary Health funded researchers explain why continuing to fund mental health research is so important.

With only 11 days until the End of Financial Year, there's still time to make a tax deductible donation to mental health research by June 30!

We are incredibly grateful to everyone who has donated to our COVID-19 appeal so far. We have now raised $11,500 for important research into mental health, but we would love to get as close to our target of $200,000 as possible!

Now, more than ever, we need mental health and suicide prevention research to effectively deal with the consequences of the COVID-19 pandemic. But we can't do it alone.

We urge you to consider donating to mental health research today to help Australian Rotary Health #LifttheLidOnMentalIllness in these uncertain times and ultimately improve the health and wellbeing of all Australians going forward.
