9. Patricia Jacka requested suggestions for guest speakers.
10. Graham Goode welcomed us to his place of business, Goode Restorations, in New Road, Clare. His thriving business grew from a hobby, and now restores vehicles from all over Australia and further. Many parts come from USA. He showed us some slides of his past work, and a 1939 Buick currently under restoration. Extensive photos are taken during both deconstruction and reconstruction. He spoke about several different vehicles he has restored. The staff consists of Graham and his son, Ben, and two panel beaters. He uses local companies for paintwork, upholstery etc. Currently working on 7 to 8 vehicles. Plenty of work for the future. Never been without work. If you are worried what a restoration might cost, then Graham advises not to proceed. Costs can keep rising as more problems are uncovered during the process. A restoration can take a year or more. Thanks for the very interesting address, Graham. Clever fellow!
